Mr. Sato was my judo teacher. He was strong and very kind. I often talked with him after practicing. I liked him.

Now, I'm a member of the judo club. I practice judo hard every day. Last year, I joined a judo tournament in our city. On that day, I met Ben for the first time. He was a boy from India. He was very strong. After the tournament, I talked to him. We talked about many things like sports and music. We became good friends.

One day, he told me about his country. He told me that there weren't many judo teachers in India. I was surprised to hear that.
